There is no household order limit for these products. Customer demand will determine the number of coins minted.

All product options contain circulating quality coins, which have never been placed into circulation, from the bureau's facilities at Philadelphia or Denver. The packaging displays the name of the President, the mint of origin ("P" or "D"), and the face value of the contents.

United States Mint Sculptor-Engraver Phebe Hemphill designed the obverse (heads side) of the Calvin Coolidge Presidential $1 Coin. The design includes the former president's portrait with the inscriptions CALVIN COOLIDGE, IN GOD WE TRUST, 30th PRESIDENT, and 1923 – 1929. United States Mint Sculptor-Engraver Don Everhart designed the coin's reverse (tails side), which features a rendition of the Statue of Liberty with the inscriptions UNITED STATES OF AMERICA and $1. The inscriptions 2014, E PLURIBUS UNUM, and the mint of origin are incused on the coin's edge.

The United States Mint was created by Congress in 1792 and became part of the Department of the Treasury in 1873. It is the Nation's sole manufacturer of legal tender coinage and is responsible for producing circulating coinage for the Nation to conduct its trade and commerce. The United States Mint also produces numismatic products, including proof, uncirculated, and commemorative coins; Congressional Gold Medals; and silver and gold bullion coins. The United States Mint's numismatic programs are self-sustaining and operate at no cost to the taxpayer.

Note: To ensure that all members of the public have fair and equal access to United States Mint products, orders placed prior to the official on-sale date and time of April 10, 2014, noon EDT shall not be deemed accepted by the United States Mint and will not be honored.
